

Media Advisory

Contact: Rob Levine
Cell: (802) 343-7328
Levine @nvtredcross.org

WHAT: Vermont Regional Red Cross Executive to Play Role in Coordinating National Response to Hurricane Gustav

Burlington, Vermont - Rob Levine, the executive director of the Northern Vermont Red Cross chapter and the regional executive for the state of Vermont has been tapped to work out of the American Red Cross Disaster Operations Center in Washington DC where the organization's response to Hurricane Gustav is being coordinated. Levine will be focused on supporting communications and outreach to Red Cross federal partners as well as general government relations activities.

He will be available for interviews and updates throughout the event and can be reached at 802-343-7328.

--END--